Run Question in State Election Greatly Overshadows National Issues.

OLD RULE FAILED IN 1908 Result of To-Day's Struggle Will Give No Indication of Progressive Strength.

Portland, Me., September 8.—When the voters of this state go to the polls tomorrow to elect a Governor, a new Legislature and four Congressmen, Maine will be in the center of the political spotlight.

As a matter of fact, nothing could be further from the truth. In the days of the late James G. Thompson, it is held and Nelson, primary, actually furnish a standard of which the trend of political sentiment in the United States could be gauged with considerable accuracy.

Called When Trust Was Named. That was the end of the application of the Maine rule to the nation. For in 1908 Bert M. Peckham was chosen Governor by only 1,000 votes.

New Battleship Pennsylvania Will Be as Large as Giant War Vessel Ordered by Great Britain

Washington, September 8.—The new battleship Pennsylvania, the only one authorized by Congress at the last session, will be built as large as the great battleship which the British government has just ordered.

Certain important features of the Pennsylvania remain to be developed. It is said to be well established that the size of the ship has exhausted the possibilities of the re-arranging engines for the great power to be developed by the boilers.
